LUNCHEON OCTOBER 6

By This Time Chairman Will Have Organized Teams and Be Ready for Whirlwind Effort to Raise Total Budget in Single Day, Sunday.

Charles E. Franks last night accepted the office of chairman of the Committee district for the Salvation Army drive for funds to be opened the week of October 9. Meeting with the members of the advisory board at the council chambers in city hall, Mr. Franks familiarized himself with the ways and means the money was to be raised and becoming acquainted with the dire necessity co-

Mr. Franks will immediately organize his advancing team and will bring the men together on Thursday evening, October 6, at a luncheon, the place to be announced later. He will immediately seek the captains for each ward and have them select the best of their own workers. There will be a captain in each ward and also in South Connelleville.

Tentative plans were discussed. Mr. Franks asking numerous questions in order to get all the details correct. His list of canvassers will be announced to the workers enrolled

The townships will be announced to the workers enrolled by the team captains at the luncheon next week.

J. H. Henderson, chairman of the recovery board, will be general chairman and will preside in the tribune offered by the local Army corps. This includes Scottsdale, Everson, Dunbar and Dayton.

Chairman to head the campaigns in these places will also be named.

The townspeople district budget is $100,000 and it is expected that one-half intensive work will bring the money into the treasury. J. L. Kurtz is treasurer and all expenditures must be made through requisitions to him.

Salvation Army when a request for assistance has been made. This is a strong item in favor of the campaign as many will gladly increase their donations when they know that it personally applies for help in a dire need. They may then refer the case to the Salvation Army and have it taken care of.

Although it had been planned to open the campaign next week, it was suggested that Sunday was the best day to start. Many of the churches on Sunday, October 9, was selected as the date. This allows Mr. Franks plenty of time to perfect his organization. Ministers of the churches will be requested to announce the campaign from their pulpits.

Coker Squad Working More
Earnestly Than Ever Before

FLOOD CITY CONFIDENT

There will be no let up in the practice of the Connellsville High school football team this week while preparations are on for the game Saturday with Johnstown. The game, one of the biggest on the Coker schedule, is undoubtedly to be one of the hardest, and Coach Wine is putting his players through a grilling pace to have them prepared for the contest.

The Cokers have picked up a world of confidence since the defeat administered by Norvick has removed any doubt as to the ability of the team. The blow was a stinging one and the memory of it may only be wiped out by the Cokers' next biggest opponent. From now on the Orange and Black squaddies have but a few stiff propositions ahead of them and there can be no shacking. With a squad the size now reporting each evening, however, it will be possible to remove a man when he goes "stale" and fill the position with one practically as good.

The players seem to be observing training rules with diligence and if this habit is only continued it is felt it will bring results on the scoreboard. Sleep is the big thing being emphasized this week and those of the team who are in it heart and soul do not need to be directed by their coach to rest.

Johnstown won over Windber High last Saturday. The score was 27-0. Last season the Windber team held the Flood City players to a 7-7 tie. Last year Connellsville held Johnstown to a 0-0 score and outplayed the team on a wet field at Johnstown.

Saturday will tell what difference a season made in these two outfits. It has been about five years since the teams defeated the coming visitors.

Quite a few candidates for the high school team are working just who will start the game Saturday. Coach Wine isn't making any comments but the best thing any fellow who wants to play can do is to put all his ability into practice this week.

With a heavier crowd expected at Fayette Field this Saturday, automobiles will have to be parked farther back from the lines to afford spectators room about the ropes. Last week the crowd remained well inside the lines. Patrolman C. E. Humbertson detailed to the game, expressed his appreciation of the people not crowding on the field. He kept the "rotters" back without any trouble.

The Cokers looked much better last week in their orange and black jerseys than in the gray ones worn the previous week. The guys are being used in practice.

TORNADO TEAM OPENS SEASON NEXT SATURDAY

The Connellsville Tornado football team opens its season on Saturday going to Mount Pleasant for their first game where the Company B team will be played on an Army field. The Mount Pleasant outfit has a high rating in this section and seems confident of success over the newly organized Cokers.

Coach Jones, driving his men hard this week and should be ready to give the soldiers a hard time. The Tornado team is the first professional football outfit to really get down to work in earnest here and sport followers are watching its activities with interest.

A special has been churched for the game and tickets are being sold at the Connellsville News office.

Coach Jones of the Tornados will have a uniform handy for himself in case his efforts are needed to win the game. That is one advantage a professional outfit has over a high school team. The coach can't run himself out of the game and hunt out the trouble.

Opponents of the Tornados will always be playing against practically two teams. The Cokers are reporting for action in good and when changes are necessary it will be possible to substitute a whole team.

Why did you put that sign over your desk? This is my busy day. It makes a good impression. answered Senator Joseph, when an impatient constituent called.

"IN THE HEART OF A FOOL" the feature attraction today, is a First National picture and is one of the best screen offerings of the year. The opening scenes of the drama production are laid in a flourishing western metropolis where the heroine, Laura Nesbitt, is seen as the belle of local society. She is loved by Grant Adams, a young journalist of forestal personality, at a house party. Laura, to arouse her lover's jealousy, flirts outrageously with Tom Van Dorn, a rising lawyer but an unscrupulous philanderer. In whose heart rests the conviction that there is no God. Contriving Laura's actions are indicating a lack of affection. Adams, heartbroken, allows himself to be drawn into an affair with the Lorelei, a siren without scruples.

Dora, Laura's sister. She knows his weakness but, hating the dictates of reason, mixes him to protect him from the demon of evil from within him. Tragic of the monodrama of murder life, Van Dorn once again takes to the Primrose path and is caught in the arms of his secretary. How deadly weaves around this marriage of sorrow a drama that touches the heights of human sacrifice and revolution is vividly told in this Dwan production.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday M. G. R. Harris will be seen in "Habit."

THE PARADE

"KEITH OF THE BORDER" a splendid picture in five acts and a re-accepted comedy, provide an entertaining program at this theatre today and tomorrow.

In addition to the program of picture a delightful musical program is presented by an orchestra.

THE ORPHEUM.

"THE ROMBOY" with Eileen Hervey, in the star role, is being shown today as the feature attraction. A story that is full of good-natured village fun mixed with touches of pathos. "The Romboy" is an excellent name for the picture because Miss Hervey is something of a cut-up. Miss Hervey is most happily cast in this story. She looks the part of a boy at times until her pretty blond curls fall from under her regularly set cap. Dressed in overalls and playing trapeze as boys do, she is fine food for gossip among the women of the village. And of course she annoys the mothers of marriageable daughters. When she captures the handsome stranger for a sweetheart. In her successful efforts to run bootleggers out of town so that they will not sell whisky to her father, she gets into many ludicrous situations. "The Romboy" is a picture well worth seeing. Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday William Hart will be seen in "The Testing Block."

U. S. Government Settles Alaska Wage Controversy

By Associated Press.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 28.—A long-controversy between operators and miners in the Alaska coal fields, particularly in the Matanuska region, have resulted in the United States government settling the dispute by creating open-shop conditions, according to a radio dispatch received at the 11th naval district headquarters here.

The dispatch came from Seattle and said that the new wage scale, effective October 1, would be $6.50 a day for miners and $5.50 for muckers; the day to be eight hours.

Of Interest to Women.

A prominent physician says that by far the largest number of women's ailments are not serious ones that is they are not caused by serious displacements or growths. Symptoms similar in character are often brought about by a much simpler condition. We therefore urge every woman who suffers from backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, side ache, irregularities, nervous despondency, or weakness to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It acts as a natural restorative and often prevents more serious troubles. Advertisement.

Tulac Has Done Him Is Beyond Price.

"I wouldn't take $10,000 for the good Tulac has done me," was the statement made by C. L. Chandler, popular salesman, residing at 112 North 18th street, Philadelphia, Pa. "About a year ago my appetite failed, and I completely lost my strength. I went down to such a lowebb I could hardly do any work. I was travelling then, and I think my troubles were brought on by my carelessness in eating. What little I ate kept me in pain and distress for hours, and I had violent headaches when I got so dizzy I could hardly stand up. I fell off my feet, and I felt so bad it was an effort for me to be pleasant to my customers. I was nervous and could sleep but very little.

"Well, my first bottle of Tulac helped me, and as I kept taking it and getting better, I noticed my sales were picking up, too, for I could get around and bring in more orders and still feel fine. I've gained 12 pounds in weight and am in the very best of condition and have been since I finished my sixth bottle of Tulac. It certainly does the work."

Tulac is sold in Connelldale by the Connelldale Drug Co., and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement.

STORE NEWS

North Pittsburg Street

For regular boys

JACKIE COOGAN'S name has been attached to a number of things lately—and none more worthy the honor than this newly arrived shipment of boys' hats and caps.

All good little boys hereabouts really should have one of them. For they are very good-looking—which appeals to the boy. And they're wonders for wear—which appeals to his mother.

The caps come in a soft serviceable mixture material—the hats mostly in tweeds. All sizes are represented so we expect to see many around town with boys inside 'em.

Especially when they're comfortable priced at $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50.

A word about prices

THE microscope applied to merchandise prices this Fall reveals these salient points.

That prices, on the average are reduced 40%.

That they are now, generally speaking, at the lowest level in several years, with cotton prices bidding fair to advance.

These facts, we know, apply to every department of this store excepting on those that deal in food stuffs.

Result is, that you are being made price-conscious today that are startling compared with last year's—without any sacrifice being made either in quality or in style.

This is distinctly a "Customer's Year" with remarkable values being offered on every hand. And the most timely advice we can offer you is—to revise an old proverb—when such offers are made "Let the Buyer Be There!"

Christmas Cards

EVERY hour brings us a step nearer Christmas, so again we remind you that this is the most opportune time to give us your order for Christmas Personal Greeting Cards.

These cards express your friendly good will better than any other medium—and you'll find them both attractive and really very priced.

Fall gloves join the chorus.
"We too, are reduced in price"

AND over and above this consoling news the season introduces many delightful innovations.

For instance the "cuff glove"—a gauntlet affair, the upper part of which being turned down—to and behold! we have a contrasting cuff, a touch to add much to one's costume.

As for price—we find straight chamoisette Keyzers, pounce, heaver and grey, priced as low as 65c to $1.00.

Chamoisette gauntlets, beaver mastic and embroidered, with the cuff feature mentioned above and clever wrist strap and button at $1.75.

Imported French lambkins as low as $2.25 (50c under their former low price).

Imported French kids, backed with colored embroidered, at $3.85, $5.00, $4 and in cuff gloves at $6.

And—most elegant climax—more French kids themselves, piquet stitched, back embroidered, creating a definite style of their own and priced $6.50.

No need to restate how a well chosen glove often tops off a costume. We would like you to see these today!

At $25 to $49.75—

Dress Trimmings for Fall

A DRESS after all is no more than the sum total of the things that bedeck it. And, ravishing as you'll find Fall Silks today, dress trimmings this year need concede them nothing whatever.

These are the favorites:

Fancy braids, tint with the glint of metal, or in soft blue, or a proud peacock color. Priced 45c to $2.75 per yard.

Bead trimmings, in red, jet or jade, holding and reflecting light like a kitten's eyes at night. Priced 75c, $1.00 up to $2.75.

Net flouncing, 38 in. wide, in mohawk, jade brown and black, for the wonderful web-like overdresses that make a costume a costume. Priced $2.50 per yard.

Cire Braid, with its sheen of shiny black more than justifying its unbounded popularity for use in trimming dresses. In 1-2 and 1-4 in. widths, priced 15c, 20c and 30c per yard.

Fringes of colored silk, to add the much desired Spanish touch to one's costume. Found in grey, brown, black and navy, priced $1.25 per yard.

Fall neckwear tempts one to build a dress
around it

IT'S so very delightful—our Neckwear Display—that don't be surprised if you start making a dress just to be able to wear one of these adorable collars.

There are organdies, embroidered in colors, or lace trimmed in white, cream and ochre, that are something to dream of. Priced $1.25, $1.50, $2.00.

Vestees, to be found in all colors, seem most charming in linen, hemstitched in front and embroidered with generous collar and adjustable cuffs. Priced $4.50. In organdie, too, only $3.50.

Collar and cuff sets in Peter Pan fashion. Lace trimmed organdies at $1.25 to $3.50. Lace-trimmed linens at $1.25 to $2.50. And finally net and lace sets in white, cream and ochre priced $1.25 to $4.00.

No costume so gay that it doesn't desire that ultimate touch—a bright bit of neckwear. You'll be much pleased with these.

Those $5 comforts

THE news from Blanketville today is this: That the comforts offered at the very special price of $5 are fast disappearing—to be expected when you consider how attractive they are and how low they are priced.

That the 27 in. and 36 in. fancy outing offered at a special price of 18c and 20c respectively are finding eager takers amongst the housewives of Connelldale.

And that the kiddies hereabouts should enjoy many a happy pillow fight this winter—judging from the acclaim with which these offerings of new feather pillows at a ridiculous price have been received.

Nor can we fail to mention the great buying activity to be noticed among blankets of the cotton persuasion. And no wonder with some of them priced as low as $1.50.

Thrifty housewives are letting the Blanket Sale provide them for a cold—and comfortable winter.

An achievement in

A REX Preserver shoes are comfortable—and still keep in style. Something that many of us never hoped to perceive.

They are comfortable because they are built on a scientifically correct last which not only keeps good feet feeling good but makes poor feet feel better—easing as they do both as preventive and cure of foot troubles.

They still keep in style because every Rex Preserver model is right good looking—sacrificing not even a wee bit of fashion to attain their great comfort.

Rex Preserve shoes are now here in great Fall abundance, in all sizes and widths. Priced for women $10, $11, and $12.50. For men $12.50 alone.
